

Changes in access to performing public schools and public school seats in St. Louis City

2008-2013

Definitions

- Select = St. Louis Public Schools magnet school that require students to meet certain academic, skill, behavior and/or attendance requirements. Parents must apply and students are assigned by lottery.
- Magnet = St. Louis Public Schools buildings with specific themes.
 Parents must apply and students are assigned by lottery.
- Neighborhood = St. Louis Public Schools buildings where children are assigned based on their address.
- Charter = A public school, free and open and are run by non-profit boards. Some schools have themes and/or a geographic enrollment focus. Parents must apply and students are assigned by lottery.
- Private = Tuition based religious and non-religious schools, operated by independent boards. Parents must apply.

5% Public School Enrollment Increase

Parental Choice Works

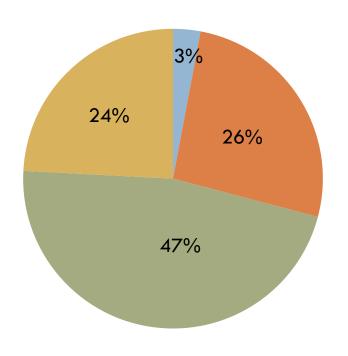

Select

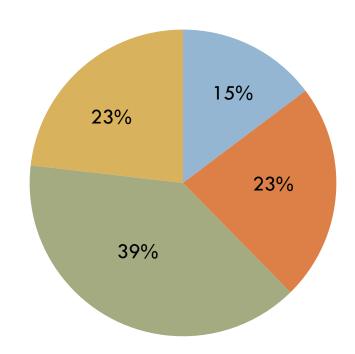

■ Neighborhood

■ Magnet

Charters

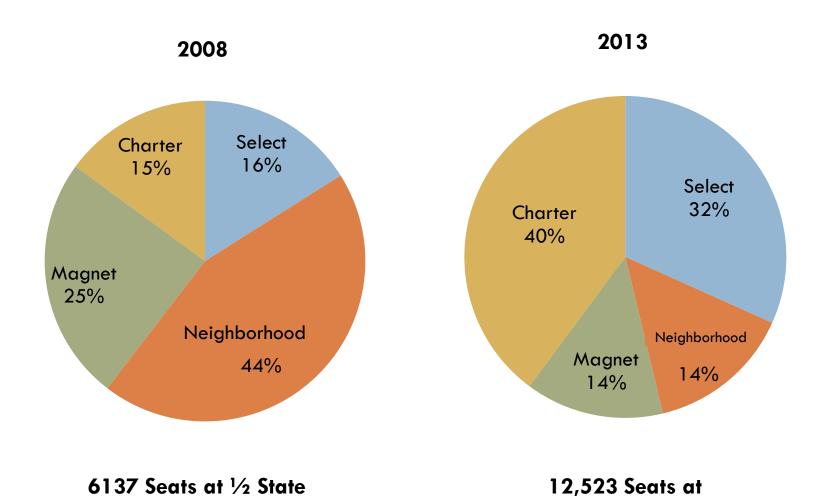

33,313 students

35,166 students

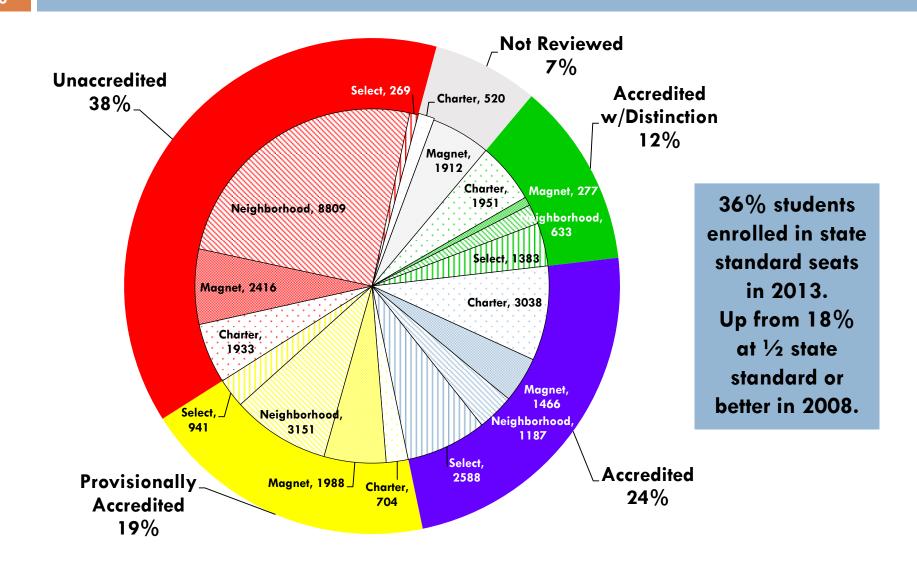

Venues for Performing Seats

Standard or Better

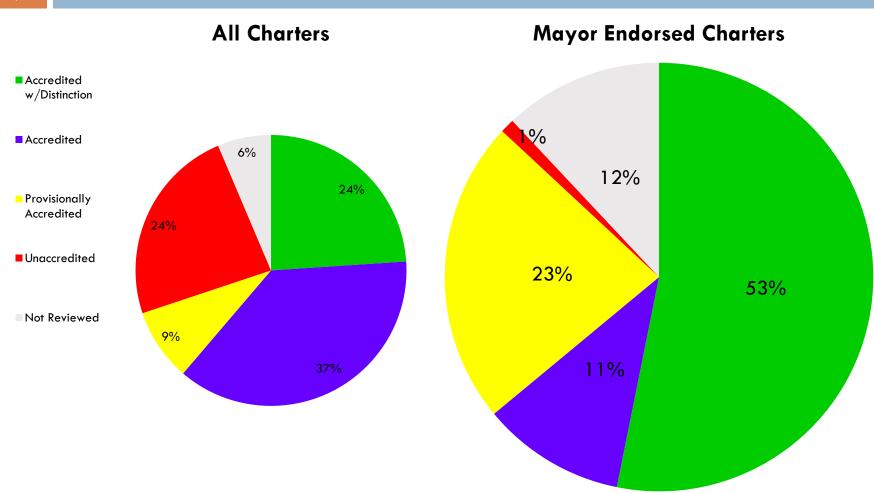

State Standard

Performance by School Type

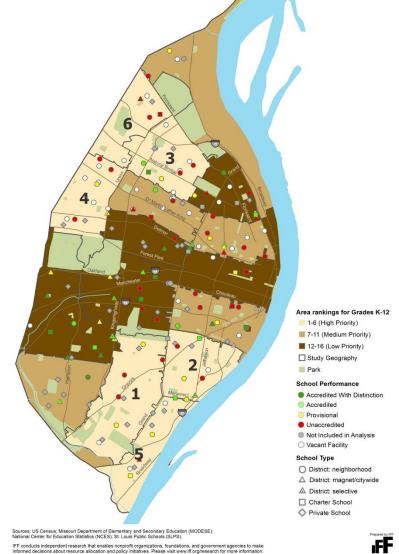

Mayor Endorsed Charter Schools

Service Gap = 18,987 Students

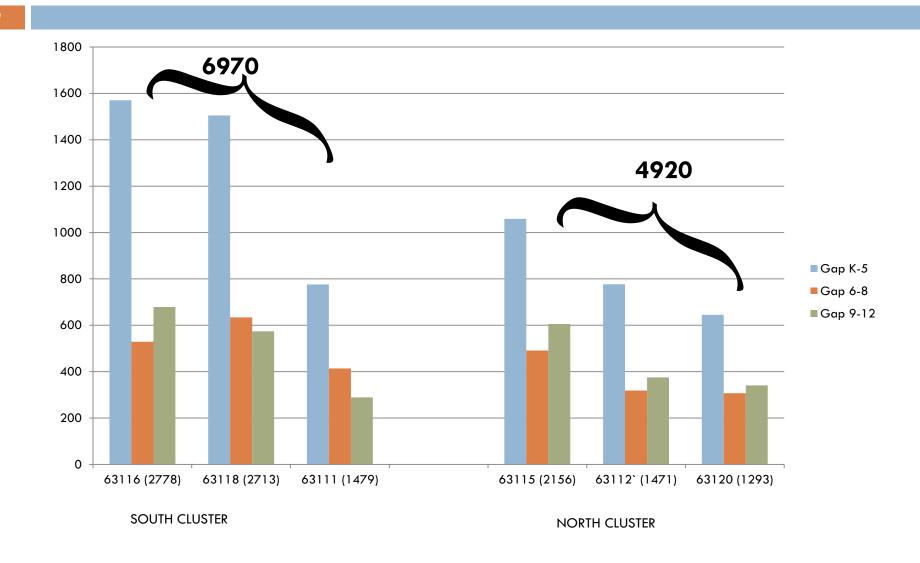

6 priority areas for new & transformed schools

Priority Areas represent 63% 11,878 students who do not have access to a performing seat

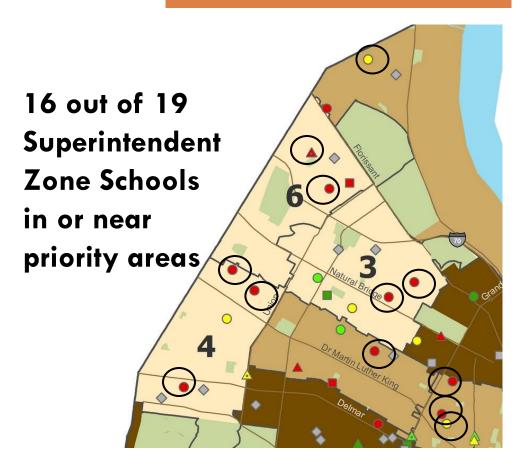

Supply & Demand Gap - Priority Areas

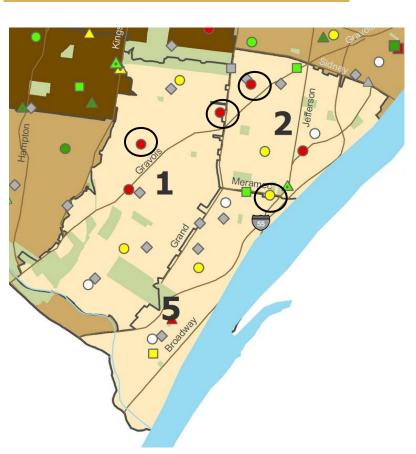

SLPS: Targeted for Transformation

NORTH cluster

SOUTH cluster

Charter School Growth

August 2014 opening

- KIPP:Victory Kg-1st grades in North
 Cluster, Priority Area 4
- The International
 School 6th grade

 South Cluster

August 2015 opening

- LaSalle 5th- 8th middle school - North
- South City Prep 9th grade - South Cluster
- Hawthorn STEM 6th grade - North Cluster
- EAGLE Prep II Kg-1st
 grades -South Cluster
- GSA North Kg-5th grades - North